

Cookie Usage Policy

Our website uses cookies, which are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. Cookies help us remember your preferences and enhance your browsing experience.

We use the following types of cookies on our website:

Essential (Always on)

These cookies are strictly necessary for the website to function and deliver the services you requested. Without these cookies, some parts of the website may not work properly.

Analytics/Performance

These cookies collect information about how visitors use a website. This data is typically anonymous and aggregated to understand user behavior, website traffic patterns, and improve the overall user experience.

Preferences

These cookies allow a website to remember choices you have made in the past (e.g., preferred language, region) and provide a more personalized experience. They can also be used to enable certain functionalities, such as remembering items in a shopping cart or providing content relevant to your location.

Marketing

These cookies are used to deliver targeted advertising to users. They track your browsing activity across different websites to build a profile of your interests and show you relevant ads. This information may also be shared with third-party advertisers.
